MESSAGE FROM OUR FOUNDERS

In the shadow of the biggest mortgage company in the country, we started a mortgage business. Why? Because we saw a tremendous need for a customer service-orientated mortgage experience for Southeast Michigan home buyers and home owners.

Most companies take a transactional approach to the mortgage process, treating a home loan like a product on a conveyor belt. This kind of mindset makes the borrower just another number.

At Omega, we see the people behind the home loan application and offer the kind of guidance we would our own family and friends. Simply put, we seek to help you accomplish your home ownership goals in the most financially responsible and sustainable way possible.

For anyone looking for a more personalized mortgage experience, we started Omega for you. So give us a call and let's get to work.
